Why You Should Make Recurring Gifts

Help provide consistent, enduring support.

Make a big impact year-round.

Have you thought about ways you can help provide enduring support to AANA's professional education and training programs? Introducing NEW recurring gifts – a donation opportunity that supports lasting changes in educational scholarships, research, innovation and more for the current and future generations of Orthopaedic Surgeons.

When you give monthly or quarterly, you become in charge of the impact you create. This form of giving is one of the most effective ways to provide meaningful support on a regular basis.

Why Become a Monthly/Quarterly Donor?

EASY PROCESS

Your donation is set to happen every month or every quarter. You can make changes or cancel at any time.

STEADY SUPPORT

Ongoing donations mean more scholarships to attend state-of-the-art training courses, and more research for AANA to remain the leading source of advancement for minimally invasive surgical education.

BUDGET-FRIENDLY AMOUNTS

Your gift can be spread out throughout the year, making your donation affordable AND impactful.

As Orthopaedic Surgeons, this is your opportunity to share a commitment to advancing minimally invasive surgical education. Practice this commitment through monthly giving.
